In London's ultra-trendy St James neighborhood, 51 Buckingham Gate has introduced five newly-renovated suites. The $1.8 million investment was overseen by London-based designer Sue Freeman, and—we hear—reflects the serenity of the hotel's courtyard garden.

Two of the suites spread out over 1,800 square feet and have three bedrooms and bathrooms in addition to separate kitchen, living and dining room space overlooking the courtyard. There's also a two-bedroom suite, and two three-bedroom suites, each with separate living and dining spaces.

Cooler Touch: Upon request, the hotel can convert two full floors into a private space with nine bedrooms and extensive living areas, connected via an internal staircase. This will be known as the Presidential Floor.
