NEW SUITES AT 51 BG

The £1.2 million investment in five newly-renovated suites at 51 Buckingham Gate, overseen by London-based designer Sue Freeman, reflects the hotel's dedication to creating a veritable 'home away from home' for guests.

The five suites (one 2-bedroom; two 1-bedroom and two 3-bedroom accommodations, with separate living and dining spaces) overlook 51's private courtyard. The pièce de résistance is the ability to convert two full floors into The Presidential Floor, arguably one of the largest suites in the Capital with nine bedrooms and extensive living areas connected via an internal staircase. Located in St. James, just minutes from Buckingham Palace, and the West End shops and theatres, the hotel is an ideal base for a weekend visit to London.
