OUZERI

LARNACA, CYPRUS

Set in a Byzantine-style courtyard, Ouzeri is part of the gorgeous Golden Bay Beach Hotel, located on a sandy beach about 10km from the town centre. Eat mezze inspired by classical Cypriot and Byzantine cuisine, such as marrow-and-cheese croquettes, grilled village sausages and breaded crab claws. Drink ouzo, local brandy and zivania, a Cypriot wine-based drink. THREE MEZZE DISHES WITH A GLASS OF ZIVANIA, ABOUT €17. TEL: +357 24 645444, WWW.GOLDENBAY.COM

BOCA DO LOBO

PORTO, PORTUGAL

Popular with royals and celebs, the small courtyard here is perfect for alfresco dining. Housed within the Hotel Infante Sagres in Porto's historical district, Boca do Lobo excels in regional specialities made with local ingredients, from shrimp risotto with Port wine reduction to octopus carpaccio with sour cream and lemon. There's an excellent wine list too.

TWO-COURSE MEAL WITH A GLASS OF WINE, ABOUT €32. 62 PRAÇA D. FILIPA DE LENCASTRE, TEL: +351 223 398500, WWW.HOTELINFANTESAGRES.PT

LA TRATTORIA DE GIANCARLO

MARRAKESH, MOROCCO

Surrounded by a lush garden filled with banana and yucca trees, La Trattoria even has a small swimming pool at its centre. The romantic pool-side tables are strewn with flower petals and flickering candles, where you can enjoy Italian dishes with a Moroccan twist. Try calamari with garlic, parsley, lemon and Atlas Mountains herbs, or strips of beef with mushrooms, paprika, onions and gherkins served with rice.
